Caleb Berger (Rimonim student), who was awarded this year's prize for having read the most books this summer. How many, you ask? 126! When asked how he did it Caleb said, "I don't know. I just really like to read." Some of his favorite books were Ghost Hunting at Wormwood and Ghost in the Attic, and he insists they aren't that spooky. Caleb made up over 10% of the total books read this summer in the lower school, a whopping 1000 books! Way to go Caleb, and Mazal Tov to the Schechter Lower School for showing us how summer reading is done!

Hebrew Infuses the EC Classroom

"Adom!" "Kadurregel!" "Balone!" These are just a few of the Hebrew words heard in the Dubonim and Shorashim classrooms. Two or three times each week, Rabbi Chatinover, Andrea and Nancy Rosen visit each of the EC classrooms to read stories in Hebrew, exposing the students to individual Hebrew words as well as the flow of the spoken language. Words are being posted in English and Hebrew around the classroom to help students get visual recognition. It is beautiful to see the students' eyes light up, their faces shining, as they enthusiastically call out the words that they are learning!

Highlight of the Week

Rimonim students made cards for their families in both English and Hebrew to celebrate Rosh Hashanah.
