Solomon Schechter Day School
of Greater Hartford

Dear Schechter Community,

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I am pleased to welcome you to the 2019 Ner Tamid Gala. We appreciate the participation of our parents, alumni, and good friends. The work accomplished within our walls could not happen without all of you. This year we are proud to honor Dr. Andrea Rose Cheatham Kasper and our inspired educators. I am personally grateful for their devotion and dedication to providing an outstanding Jewish day school education.

As Schechter's Head of School, Andrea is committed to a progressive educational approach and to making Jewish life and learning meaningful to younger generations. She has undertaken the implementation of many new programs designed to enrich our students' learning experience and make Schechter the special place that it is today. Our educators are the heart and soul of our school. They are master educators who take on new challenges with gusto, work through nuance, and consider each and every student in their instruction. The Schechter faculty is on a never-ending learning trajectory. We are pleased to honor and celebrate the educators who have shaped and continue to shape our children.

We are very fortunate to benefit from the generosity of a supportive and caring Jewish community. We sincerely thank the Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford and the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Hartford for their continued support. We hold dear our generous supporters whose continuous belief that a strong and vibrant Schechter education helps ensure that our legacy of creating lifelong learners and passionate leaders in the Jewish community continues for many years to come.

As a Schechter graduate, a parent of a Schechter graduate and a current 6th grader, I am proud to be a representative of such an exceptional school and look forward to our continued success.

Sincerely,

Lauren Eisen

President, Board of Trustees

Honorees:

ANDREA ROSE CHEATHAM KASPER Head of School

As Schechter's Head of School, Andrea is committed to implementing a progressive educational approach and to making Jewish life and learning meaningful to younger generations. Andrea's visionary leadership continues to inspire all those touched by the Schechter experience and is committed to Schechter's on-going growth and evolution. She is humbled every day by the incredible Schechter team who rises to every challenge, does not shy away from reflection, and who all have a hunger to be the best in their field. It is because of them that Schechter students thrive and feel a deep sense of belonging. She is inspired by her incredibly loving and supportive husband, Jacob, along with their four children, Zelia, Lazer, Inez, and Widzer. She is also grateful to the life-long encouragement she receives from her extended family: Ima, Aba, Baki, Angie, Lauren, and Ian, and her grandmother Zelia. Andrea holds a BA from The George Washington University and a Masters of Jewish Education from Hebrew College. She was recently awarded an EdD at Northeastern University in Educational Leadership.

“The true guardians of a community are the teachers.”

OUR INSPIRED EDUCATORS

Our educators are the heart and soul of Schechter. Bringing their whole selves to school every day, they work passionately and creatively to make our vision a reality. They are master educators who take on new challenges with gusto; they work through nuance, they consider each and every student in their instruction, and they are on a never ending learning trajectory. We invite you to honor and celebrate the educators who have shaped and continue to shape our children.

DOUG LYONS, Ed.D, Executive Director, CAIS

Doug has been the Executive Director of the Connecticut Association of Independent Schools since July 2004. A graduate of Villanova University, Doug has Masters and Doctoral degrees from The University of Pennsylvania. He began his career in public education, serving for twenty years in the New Jersey public schools as a teacher, coach, school principal, and superintendent of schools. In 1992, he became Headmaster of the Greenwich Country Day School, Connecticut's largest independent school.

Dr. Lyons' publications on education and on parenting have appeared in local, state, and national journals and in the popular media, including Independent School Magazine, The New England Independent School Guide, Executive Educator, Connecticut Magazine and The New York Times. Doug has served on many non-profit boards and committees and is a frequent presenter at NAIS Annual Conferences and at regional conferences all over the United States. Doug believes that an independent school education confers life-long advantages. He has four grandchildren in independent schools – and he is paying tuition again – happily!

MANGINAH, Brandeis University's Jewish A Cappella Group

Founded in 1994, Manginah is Brandeis University's premier co-ed Jewish A Cappella group. Partnered with Hillel, Manginah sings a mixture of culturally Jewish, Israeli pop, and English pop songs. Located in Waltham, Massachusetts at Brandeis University, Manginah has served the greater Boston community with an enthusiasm for Judaism, music, and any ways those two combine! Recently, the group has increased its regional profile by winning third place in the New England Jewish Collegiate A Cappella and Showcase at Temple Sholom.

HINENI

A simple word that says "Here I am!"
to our fellow Jews and their neighbors.

HINENI means 900+ local children and youth and 2,000+ college students will deepen their Jewish roots through Federation programs and our local Jewish day and synagogue schools, preschools and camps, youth groups and Hillels.

HINENI means Jews and their neighbors worldwide can recover and rebuild after natural disasters and acts of violence, with help from the Jewish Federation network.

HINENI means 4,080 bags of kosher food, including over a ton of fresh produce, will be distributed to hungry families through Jewish Family Services' Anja Rosenberg Kosher Food Pantry and Jessie's Community Gardens.

HINENI means 500+ local students - many from disadvantaged homes - will discover the joy of reading with help from Children's Reading Partners.

One gift to Federation's Annual Campaign does all this... and so much more.

THANK YOU for saying HINENI

TRENDSETTER

Dear Andrea,

As the father of three daughters who graduated from Schechter, there are few things more important than them seeing women in positions of power and authority. It reminds them that there are no ceilings to their academic and career aspirations.

As the father of one son who is a Schechter graduate, in this “me-too” generation, there are few things more important than him seeing women in positions of power and authority. It reminds him that women are our equals and promotes healthier relationships between the sexes.

We are so fortunate to have you, an outstanding female role model, as the head of our wonderful school. Your presence and skills empower the young minds you stand before. You are passionate, visionary and completely vested in the concept of making our school the best that it can be and we are so fortunate that you have blessed us with your talent and commitment.

On behalf of my family and our community, congratulations on being our Ner Tamid honoree.

To the outstanding staff of teachers and administrators at Schechter:

You have enriched my family in so many ways — culturally, morally, religiously, academically, ethically — and have helped me to raise four beautiful children who will have a positive impact upon our world. The time you have invested in my family, from pre-K to 8th grade, has paid dividends beyond my imagination. I am surely not alone in my appreciation for what you have done and continue to do.

Your job is ever-changing and challenging but you would not have remained where you now are without your belief that what you are doing is so valuable and so very valued by the parents as well as the students.
