Chochma-Wisdom

Gavi Lehrer (Schechter 2002 and Parparim teacher) received a Masters in Education in Teacher Leadership from Brandeis University last week! Gavi has already been putting her skills to excellent use, by launching a professional development initiative over the past two years with the K-8 Schechter faculty. This initiative included creating and facilitating a Professional Learning Community where collaboration across grade levels and content areas is crucial. This collaborative effort resulted in shared language about teaching practices and led to the development of peer observation. Teachers utilized each other as tools for discussion and reflection, enhancing their teaching, and the Schechter student experience. This initiative will continue for years to come.

Zachary Sobel-Pressman (Schechter 2015) was one of two students from Hall High School who was awarded a Certificate of Merit from the Society of Women Engineers, recognizing a high school junior who has demonstrated three years of excellence in Science and Mathematics and who is an active citizen in the school and community.

Klal Yisrael-Community

Eitan Ehrlich (Schechter 2015) was just elected to BBYO's Connecticut Valley Regional Board for the second year! Last year, as Regional Ozer (in charge of Community Service), Eitan worked with chapter Ozerim to pick a StandUp Cause that is unique and meaningful to each chapter, engaging over 500 teens in service projects. For the coming year, Eitan will serve as Regional Mazkir (Director of Communications). In addition, he has brought his passion for making videos to BBYO, shooting this footage during BBYO International Convention to capture the energy of the convention for Jewish teens.

Maddy Pliskin (Schechter 2014) has been selected by the Nathan and Toby Starr Fellowship in Disability Policy at Brandeis University to participate in a yearlong research fellowship on Disability Policy, during which she will participate in a disability-related research conference and co-author a peer reviewed publication. Check out the Lurie Institute for Disability Policy, where Maddy will be working!

Lev Tov- Good Heart

Daniel Chozick (Schechter 2006) was selected to be the graduation speaker at the Georgetown Law School Commencement Ceremony last week. He spoke about the importance of compassion in their new profession and encouraged his classmates to "Help those in need. Seek Justice. Build a better society." Kol ha kavod, Daniel!

Sari Eisen (Schechter 2017) Co-founder of Twinkle Toes, a one-hour dance program running every other weekend at the Mandell JCC that allows children with disabilities to learn the basics of dance and performance. Sari and her friend Lauren Sussler created, designed and implemented this class completely on their own.
